

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

KEMMONS WILSON COMPANIES ANNOUNCES NEW ADDITIONS TO INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT AND TAX TEAMS.

Memphis, TN – JUNE 2016 –

Kemmons Wilson Companies (KWC) is pleased to announce they have expanded their investment management team with Shannon Rhodes as Managing Director and their tax team to include Kayla Dominguez and Zach Ogale.

As Managing Director, Shannon will be focused on managing KWC's hedge fund and alternative investment strategies. Shannon has over 19 years of industry experience, most recently at Meritage, based in Austin, where he was responsible for managing the firm's non-directional investment strategies. Prior to joining Meritage (through Centennial Partners, LLC) in 2004, Shannon served as a Research Analyst for Alternative Investment Strategies. He was also a futures and options trader for Man-Drapeau Advisors and GPT Trading. Shannon received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from Vanderbilt University and a Master of Business Administration degree from Duke. Shannon also holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation.

Kayla Dominguez joins KWC's tax team as Senior Tax Accountant where she will oversee the tax planning of entities by interpreting regulations, completing tax returns, and ensuring compliance. Prior to joining KWC, Kayla was with KPMG in their federal tax practice. She earned her Bachelor of Business and Master of Accountancy at the University of Arkansas. Additionally, Kayla earned her CPA designation in 2015.

As Senior Tax Accountant, Zach Ogale is responsible for tax compliance as well as assisting in legal work with KWC. Before joining the KWC team, Zach was a tax accountant at Reynolds, Bone & Griesbeck where he was responsible for the tax filings of business entities and high net worth individuals. He also teaches Principles of Accounting as an adjunct professor at University of Memphis. Zach graduated from Christian Brothers University with his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration, Finance concentration and earned his JD/MBA from the University of Memphis. Zach is certified to practice law in the state of Tennessee and has completed his CPA.

About Kemmons Wilson Companies

Kemmons Wilson Companies is a third-generation, single family office established in 1948 by Kemmons Wilson. Most noted for founding Holiday Inn Hotels, Kemmons was a serial entrepreneur who never stopped creating or investing in businesses. Having owned, operated or partnered with people in over 400 ventures to date, the third generation helps lead the company today with a concentration in six (6) key industries – aviation, financial services, hotels, insurance, real estate and time sharing but are also open to opportunities outside these areas. We continue to exemplify the same core values, people-first philosophy and long-term perspective that our predecessors instilled. To learn more, visit kwilson.com

Contact

To learn more about this story, please contact
Christina Meek
Memphis Chamber of Commerce
cmeek@memphischamber.com
901.543.3500